Solution: Naturally, students and their families want to select the year that they are completing the form (2018-19). But like the FAFSA, the form is for the following academic year, 2019-20 (the year that the student will be a first-year student, or a freshman). Entering names or Social Security numbers incorrectly. Solution: Students should report their name as it appears on legal documents, and the same goes for their Social Security number.
