Stuck with my vampire mate is a novel which contains fantasies and fiction that swirls in the mind of a normal teenager. The characters inside the novel are purely out of imagination and nothing that is scientifically proven. Vampires are legends who are partly blood sucking bats and the rest as humans. They are usually said to be night dwellers and creatures with immaculate strength. In this book the vampire traits are changed according to the Author's view. A story, which enables the new generation and all fantasy lovers to get the taste of fiction and several morals that are hid inside the words. The conversations and characters are totally imaginary and not meant to hurt any believes. I dedicate this story to the people who value love and relationships and who believe family is a boon gifted to mankind for his own nurture.

Nike had given in to her desires as she mated the Vampire King, but before she could return to her realm, she was taken by force by a Slayer she had trusted and secretly loved. Then his eyes changed just like the demon who had killed her parents six years ago. Nike was abducted from Rais Ator, her Vampire's realm, and teleported onto a large metal hanger - she was inside an alien spaceship. Nike hadn't wanted to believe that her father had hidden her away within the human realm when she wasn't even human. She was Fallen, Slayer, Seeker, and Vampire, and part of a race called Evecians - her father's people. Her father would have been next in line as Emperor, but with his death. Nike was exposed to those who sought to end her because of a prophecy. Nike learned that she was also a princess. She began to fit the missing pieces of the puzzle in place where prophecy had mentioned a Vampire King and a Hybrid Princess would stop the realms from rendering Asunder. Nike was expected to see prophecy's telling come to fruition. It included joining with others in Blood Bond to appease the persona manifestations inside her head as each gained power with each bond formed. While onboard the Evecian battleship, Nike met her Intended but refused to accept her destiny. Then forced by unforeseen circumstances, Nike realized she couldn't deny her calling; she had created more Blood bonds. It was a race against time as Nike agreed to help fulfill her destiny. It meant her becoming the enemy of the Ipuloks, an Alien version of Demons who had wanted to eliminate Nike to stop her from fulfilling prophecy. In the meantime, time was running out for her Vampire mate, weeks had passed, and he hadn't been able to sustain his body without her blood. He was slowly becoming a creature of Blood lust from which there was no return. First, Nike would have to fulfill her promise against her desire to return and save her Vampire mate?
