What Do We Do in Adoration? Adoration Of The Blessed Sacrament

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration at Tyburn Convent. The Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is the overflow and consequence of our deep sharing in the Eucharistic sacrifice and the liturgy of praise. This Eucharistic service is an anticipation of the heavenly liturgy spoken of in the Book of Revelation where those who have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb stand before the throne of God and serve Him day and night in His temple, the Lord Himself dwelling in their midst.

Eucharistic adoration is a Eucharistic practice in the Roman Catholic, Anglo-Catholic and some Lutheran traditions, in which the Blessed Sacrament is adored by the faithful. This practice may occur either when the Eucharist is exposed, or when it is not publicly viewable because it is reserved in a place such as a church tabernacle. Adoration is a sign of devotion to and worship of Jesus Christ, who is believed by Catholics to be present Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, under the appearance of t

Eucharistic adoration - Wikipedia

Each one of the prayers addressed to the Blessed Sacrament is of great importance because, besides making a specific request, the soul and heart give themselves before God. In these prayers to the Blessed Sacrament, the sincere heart is adored, becoming a weapon of high power when one speaks of goodness and spirituality. That is why it is so important to be aware of their power and that their effect will always depend on faith as they are prayed.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is not something new. It is a centuries-old practice rooted in an essential teaching of Catholic Christianity: Jesus Christ is truly and completely present in the Eucharist. Like many practices of our faith, however, adoration of the Blessed Sacrament developed gradually.

What's the history of adoration of the blessed sacrament?

Eucharistic adoration is a prayer and form of worship that is offered to the Lord through His most Blessed Sacrament. Eucharistic adoration can be done in community or individually. In community, Eucharistic adoration is often led by the priest in a parish. In this form of worship, the Blessed Sacrament is taken from the adoration chapel and exposed in the altar of the parish.
