Agatha Christie The Lost Plays

These three very good old radio plays had been thought to be lost but were then rediscovered. The first two are one-off dramas by Christie which are really very creepy and atmospheric, Butter in a Lordly Dish and Personal Call. The third is an adaptation of one of her Poirot short stories, Murder in the Mews.

Poirot relates the story of how he acquired 14,000 shares of a lead mine by investigating the death of a Chinese man whose family was selling the mine.

A revealing and witty new examination of how Agatha Christie became the world ' s most successful and popular female playwright, including details of never-before-published scripts and stories.

Agatha Christie created magnificent works of suspense for the theater, and eight of her riveting stage dramas are collected in The Mousetrap and Other Plays—including the title piece, the longest running play in history, still a smash hit in London's West End after 60 years! On an isolated island, ten people have been brought together to be killed off. An evil old woman has a rendezvous with death in the desert heat of Jerusalem. A scheming wife testifies against her husband in a shocking murder trial. And a homicidal maniac terrorizes a group of snowbound guests to the refrain of "Three Blind Mice." This collection of eight works proves that Agatha Christie's plays are as compulsive as her novels, with their colorful characters and ingenious plots providing yet more evidence of her mastery of the detective thriller. Includes: And Then There Were None, Appointment with Death, The Hollow, The Mousetrap, Witness for the Prosecution, Towards Zero, Verdict, and Go Back for Murder.

The autobiography of the queen of mystery, Agatha Christie.

The Man in the Brown Suit is a work of detective fiction by British writer Agatha Christie, first published in the UK by The Bodley Head on 22 August 1924 and in the US by Dodd, Mead and Company later in the same year. Anne Beddingfeld is on her own and ready for adventures when one comes her way. She sees a man die in a tube station and picks up a piece of paper dropped nearby. The message on the paper leads her to South Africa as she fits more pieces of the puzzle together about the death she witnessed. There is a murder in England the next day, and the murderer attempts to kill her on the ship en route to Cape Town...
