The Angelus, by the German Romantic painter Johann Sebastian Hubert, 1811. The Angelus is a Catholic devotion commemorating the Incarnation, which is the first of the three Marian dogmas of the Roman Catholic Church. The devotion is practised by reciting as versicle and response three Biblical verses narrating the Annunciation.

The Angelus is a centuries-old Catholic devotion that recalls the annunciation of Christ s birth by the Angel Gabriel to the Virgin Mary. In Praying the Angelus, popular author and speaker Jared Dees reinvigorates the devotion, shares intimately from his own experience of it, shows us how to get started, and enriches the practice with original meditations to reflect on the words of both the Angelus and the Regina Caeli. Jared Dees was twenty-seven and in his fourth year of teaching religion in a Catholic school when he first experienced the Angelus.The creator of The Religion Teacher website allows the devotion to anchor his prayer life and challenge him to daily conversion of heart and will. Dees introduces the Angelus devotion and explores its rich history and significance for the Church. As spiritual companion and guide, he offers meditations on the words and images of both the Angelus and the Regina Caeli, which is prayed during the Easter season. We find lessons about the power of repetitive prayer, the humility of being a disciple, the importance of admitting time belongs to God, the wisdom of taking time with discernment, and the joy of resting in the Lord s presence. He shares personal stories of the life-change power of the Angelus and guides both newcomers and those already familiar with the prayer to contemplate the mysteries of salvation that lie at the heart of the devotion the Annunciation, Incarnation, and Resurrection. Named forthe opening words of the devotion’s first prayer in Latin, "The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary," the Angelus is typically prayed at 6:00 a.m., noon, and 6:00 p.m. each day. Likewise the Regina Caeli is named for the opening lines of its prayer, "Queen of heaven, rejoice, alleluia." Praying the Angelus is supported by Dees s website, TheAngelusPrayer.com, where people can gather online to participate in and share this devotion with others."

Here are poetic texts by one of the great German mystics of the 17th century, Angelus Silesius (1624-1677). These texts, written in the form of the epigram, are still used today for contemplative prayer and as part of German Christmas folklore.

AngelusVolume 2 expands upon the Qabbalistic teachings and the imprint of the first volume. The Face of Love offers an expansive view of the Tree of Life, as well as the restoration of the presence of the Sophia-energies. The balancing of personal and universal energies are explained, whilst offering an introduction into the geometrical building blocks of the creative cosmic frequencies. It further reveals the sacred resonances available to man, in order to re-establish connection with the Higher Resonances. The Face of Love offers the reader insight into the greater balance of creation, revealed to the writer during a very personal event with theAngelics.
