Beegu is a bright yellow, strange looking creature from another planet who somehow gets lost on earth. She is scared, lonely and confused and begins to wander around the near by city in hope to find some friends to care for her. The only friends she can find are a litter of puppies in a school yard filled with children.

~~Beegu by Alexis Deacon - Goodreads~~

The only thing I would note to parents is that Beegu is a child alien who only children seem to like and understand. He is very relatable and his feelings get hurt. The (human) adults in the book are not understanding of this alien child and react in fear. They do not come around or learn the alien child can be trusted by the end of the story.
