Conservation - bookbinding

All our binding is done by hand in the traditional manner, using the highest quality materials, such as: premium quality bookbinding leather, archival grade cloth, hand made paper, reversible glue and 23 1/2 ct gold for gilding. We also have a large selection of hand tools, some dating back to the 17th century, and nearly all cut by hand.

A third division deals with the repair, restoration, and conservation of old used bindings. Today, modern bookbinding is divided between hand binding by individual craftsmen working in a shop and commercial bindings mass-produced by high-speed machines in a factory. There is a broad grey area between the two divisions.
