A reading from the Book of the Prophet Joel Even now, says the Lord, return to me with your whole heart, with fasting, and weeping, and mourning; Rend your hearts, not your garments, and return to the Lord, your God. For gracious and merciful is he, slow to anger, rich in kindness, and relenting in punishment. Perhaps he will again relent

The first followers of Christ--the early church--were devoted to the breaking of bread (Acts 2:42). To the casual reader that may sound a bit strange. While devotion to "the apostles' teaching" and to "the fellowship" makes sense (Acts 2:42), the idea of breaking bread can only be understood in the context of Jesus' last supper with his followers on the night before he died.
