To protect consumers, the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA) has strict guidelines about what debt collectors can and cannot do when attempting to collect a debt from you. They can only call you between certain hours, must inform you that they're a debt collector attempting to collect a debt, they cannot harass you, and must stop calling you after you've sent a written letter asking them to stop calling you.

Reporting Debt Collectors That Violate the FDCPA

Collections agencies can report to all three of the credit bureaus almost as soon as they purchase the debt. They can then report monthly on the status of the debt for seven years and 180 days from the date they took the account.)Learn more: Collections Crash Course Actions to Take When Accounts Show Up
