Who doesn't want to do less work, do better work, and still get "it all" done? Duh. A minimalist lifestyle begins with getting really (really really) comfortable with the idea that more does not equal better. The minimalist guide to productivity starts with a simple theory. A lot of the items on your to-do list just do not need to be there. By designing your day differently and by focusing on only your most important goals, you can afford to spend more time on the things that actually ...
