Double Dexter is more focused on Dexter, his marriage and whether Dexter the serial killer will be discovered. I can't really say much else without spoilers, but this book was worth wading through the couple of others before it.

Double Dexter (Dexter, #6) by Jeff Lindsay

After reading last book Dexter Is Delicious i felt slightly disappointed and was a bit weary on starting Double Dexter which is the sixth book i needn't have worried as was a real return to form. I'm really pleased I've read the books as they are departure from my normal readings, and i now look forward to the next book coming out as much as the next Season of the show.
