One of America's leading brand strategists shares her step-by-step program for creating an unforgettable identity in today's marketplace. Do you ever go to work and think to yourself "there must be more"? Or feel that your true talents and abilities aren't being utilized, or even recognized? Are you a freelancer or entrepreneur who isn't sure how to rise to the top in today's competitive environment? Wouldn't it be empowering to be able to work in a field you feel passionately about and be successful and well paid? In Make a Name for Yourself, Robin Fischer Roffer shows you how to develop a unique, personal brand strategy for success by identifying your extraordinary attributes, thinking about your values and passions, and by learning how to use them in today's marketplace. In Make a Name for Yourself she shows you how you can brand your own unique traits and talents for career success and personal fulfillment. In a step-by-step program she covers: * Unearthing your authentic self to develop a brand that reflects your natural talents, abilities, and passions * Defining your long-term career goals and dreams * Adapting and selling your brand to your target market * Identifying and overcoming personal roadblocks * Packaging yourself to reflect your chosen brand image * Launching, maintaining, and building your brand Inspiring case studies, analyses of well known brands, and thought-provoking exercises will help you create all the essential brand elements. And unlike other career advisors who simply push networking or other external tools, Roffer also offers methods for working on your inner self to overcome fears and decipher realities. Make a Name for Yourself is for anyone starting out in the workforce, beginning their own business, changing careers, or trying to make it in the corporate world.

Do you long to hear God whisper your name again in new and fresh ways perhaps through poetic whispers? Are you ready to respond to these whispers to whisper back to God? He Knows My Name: Poetic Whispers from Heaven presents an inspiring collection of poetry from Penny T. Jenkins that strives to answer those questions and to provide solace in troubled times. It can also be used as a seventy-day devotional to explore our emotions as we are drawn closer to God. God knows our names and wants to whisper sweet encouragement into our hearts and souls again. He is always with us, encouraging us and loving us through the challenges in our lives. These poems of inspiration are meant to draw us closer to God through His soft and tender whisperings, along with the Scriptures, His written Word. Included in this collection are seventy inspirational poems and many powerful biblical references. It is a place to capture inspiring and emotional moments with God. He Knows My Name He knows my name. He knows my shame. He knows my blame. He knows my game. Yet He still came, But not for fame, And not to complain, And not to cause pain. He came to reclaim. He came to proclaim. He came to exclaim. He knows my name.

The rise of the female entrepreneur over the past 30 years is a cause for celebration in the UK. Whether driven by unfair treatment at work, conflict between office and family life, or the inspiration of a great business idea, hundreds of thousands of women are motivated to work for themselves. There are many benefits to being self-employed but many, too, are the challenges. Women need confidence, support, and often some start-up finance to make a go of it. This book will provide inspiration, information and loads of advice from a range of women who run their own business. It starts by recognising that women start all kinds of ventures in many different circumstances:

- Developing an idea from home
- Freelancing
- Joining the 'mumpreneurs'
- Launching a business with capital investment
- Buying a franchise or creating a franchise
- Becoming a direct selling agent
- Creating a social enterprise
- Starting up after redundancy or unemployment
- Breaking new ground - young, retired, disabled, disadvantaged

Drawing on the author's own experience as "the other woman" in an affair with an otherwise-committed man, this contemporary feminist study is the first to label the role of the two-timing male as "sexual terrorist."

The United States is in transit from an industrial to a postindustrial society, from a modern to postmodern culture, and from a national to a global economy. In this book Richard Harvey Brown asks how we can distinguish the uniquely American elements of these changes from more global influences. His answer focuses on the ways in which economic imperatives give shape to the shifting experience of being American. Drawing on a wide knowledge of American history and literature, the latest social science, and contemporary social issues, Brown investigates continuity and change in American race relations, politics, religion, conception of selfhood, families, and the arts. He paints a vivid picture of contemporary America, showing how postmodernism is perceived and felt by individuals and focusing attention on the strengths and limitations of American democracy.
