The How, Why, When, and What of Everyday Swearing. Dictionaries of slang and obscenity are often disappointing, because they define terms but shy away from discussing exactly how they are used in everyday life. Filthy English does the opposite. Peter Silverton not only tells you what swear words mean, but he illustrates and analyses their use in the very places for which they are designed - the street, the pub, the argument, the curse, and the insult.

Filthy English: The How, Why, When and What of Everyday

The storyline to Filthy English was entertaining, I loved the secondary characters, Spider and Lulu (I'm hoping they get a book) and the pace and length of the book was perfect. It wasn't rushed and the book has plenty going on, which is why you just cant put it down, you just need to see what is going to happen next.
