William Strauss and Neil Howe posit the history of America as a succession of generational biographies, beginning in 1584 and encompassing every-one through the children of today. Their bold theory is that each generation belongs to one of four types, and that these types repeat sequentially in a fixed pattern.

In their first book Generations (1991), Strauss and Howe describe the history of the US as a succession of Anglo-American generational biographies from 1584 to the present, and they describe a theorized recurring generational cycle in American history. The authors posit a pattern of four repeating phases, generational types and a recurring cycle of spiritual awakenings and secular crises, from the founding colonials of America through the present day.

Strauss-Howe generational theory - Wikipedia

The book "Generations: the History of America's Future" is one that attracted me a great deal from finding about it on an astrology site about the outer planets. When one removes the mythology of astrology, the book proved initially very fascinating, because Strauss and Howe described four types of generation that they saw as repeating itself over up to five centuries.
