Groundbreaking book on the intersection between technology and nature. Fascinating selection of cutting edge projects in architecture. To my knowledge there isn't any other book out there that is discussing the merge between architecture and landscape architecture in this level of detail and intention.

Groundwork: Between Landscape and Architecture by Diana ...

In Groundwork, landscape architect Diana Balmori and architect Joel Sanders explore the territory between their fields, which is often painted—falsely, they write—as a dichotomy. "An integrated practice of landscape and architecture could have dramatic environmental consequences: the disciplines would cease to have separate agendas and would instead allow for buildings and landscapes to perform as linked interactive systems that heal the environment."
