synopsis. Guerra e pace tells the story of the relationship between cinema and war, one that has lasted for over a century, from the time of their first encounter, way back in 1911, on the occasion of the Italian invasion of Libya, to our own day. From the sequences filmed by the pioneers of cinema to today's videos shot on smartphones by ordinary citizens all over the world, the step appears very short and the relationship between the movies and war a very strong one.

E' la migliore realizzazione filmica di "Guerra e pace", sia come ambientazione e paesaggi che come interpretazione, in particolare quelle di Alessio Boni e Clemence Poesy. Le scene sono molto fedeli alla descrizione di Tolstoj, c'è estrema meticolosità e cura dei particolari, che però non compromette la realizzazione d'insieme del film, né impedisce di percepire il messaggio del grande ...

mir) è un film drammatico del 1966, diretto da Sergej Bondar?uk e basato sul romanzo Guerra e pace di Lev Tolstoj. Il film è entrato nel libro dei Guinness dei primati per vari record, tra cui l'alto bilancio e la durata.

Con un saggio di Tolstoj sulla genesi del romanzo Introduzione di Eraldo Affinati Edizione integrale Guerra e pace, certamente il capolavoro di Tolstoj, è, come ha scritto Ettore Lo Gatto, «la più grande opera della letteratura narrativa russa e una delle più grandi della letteratura europea del secolo XIX». Il romanzo racconta la storia di due famiglie aristocratiche, i Bolkonski e i Rostòv, in una Russia sconvolta dalla guerra e dall'invasione napoleonica. Raramente è dato di leggere un'opera in cui i destini individuali dei personaggi principali - fra cui spiccano Nataša Rostòva, il principe Andréi Bolkonski e il conte Pierre Bezuchov - si intrecciano in modo così perfetto con gli avvenimenti storici e militari: una dimensione che il cinema non ha mancato di sottolineare in tanti film di successo. L'epopea del popolo russo, il rapporto fra personalità individuale e collettività, i grandi temi filosofici dell'Ottocento e l'interrogazione sul senso della Storia si fondono in questa grandiosa narrazione tolstojana. Lev N. Tolstoj Lev Nikolaevi? Tolstoj nacque a Jasnaja Poljana nel 1828 e morì ad Astapovo nel 1910. È considerato uno dei massimi rappresentanti del realismo letterario dell'Ottocento. Fra le sue opere maggiori ricordiamo I racconti di Sebastopoli, Guerra e pace, La morte di Ivan Il'ic, La sonata a Kreutzer e Resurrezione. Di Tolstoj la Newton Compton ha pubblicato Anna Karenina, Guerra e pace e La sonata a Kreutzer.

Italian cinema triumphed globally in the 1960, with directors such as Rossellini, Fellini, and Leone, and actors like Sophia Loren and Marcello Mastroianni known to audiences around the world. But by the end of the 1980s, the Italian film industry was all but dead. The Rise and Fall of the Italian Film Industry traces the rise of the industry from its origins in the 19th century to its worldwide success in the 1960s, and its rapid decline in the subsequent decades. It does so by looking at cinema as an institution - subject to the interplay between the spheres of art, business, and politics at the national and international level. By examining the roles of a wide range of stakeholders (including film directors, producers, exhibitors, the public, and the critics) as well as the system of funding and the influence of governments, author Marina Nicoli demonstrates that the Italian film industry succeeded when all three spheres were aligned, but suffered and ultimately failed when they each pursued contradictory objectives. This in-depth case study makes an important contribution to the long-standing debate about promoting and protecting domestic cultures, particularly in the face of culturally dominant and politically- and economically-powerful creative industries from the United States. The Rise and Fall of the Italian Film Industry will be of particular interest to business and economic historians, cinema historians, media specialists, and cultural economists.

This Chronology of the Cinema, of which we propose here the first volume, aims to retrace the history of the seventh art in the different countries of the world by chronicling year by year its main events and developments, starting from the birthdates of the pioneers and inventors who preceded the Lumière brothers to reach until the year 2015, with the goal to offer the readers a global perspective on its birth, evolution and diffusion over time. This first volume covers the period going from 1830 to 1960. The information presented for each year is divided into thematic sections. The first one, titled "Personalities", reports the births and the deaths of the most important persons (directors, art directors, producers, actors, costume designers, cinematographers, theoreticians, critics, etc.) in the history of the cinema, together with the positions they covered in their careers. Across its three volumes, this Chronology offers information on more than 3000 persons. The second section, titled "Movies", lists the most relevant movies made during the year reporting for each of them the essential details like: director, English title and original title, genre, producing country, technology (film and sound), scriptwriter, editor, cinematographer, production designer/art director, producer, composer, costume designer, make-up artist, special effect artist and actors. Across its three volumes, this Chronology offers information on more than 3000 films. The third section, titled "Events", reports the main events in the history of cinema as: the first screenings and the first movies made in the different countries, the inventions and technologies that affected and innovated this art, the creation of production companies, movie archives and other institutions (cinema schools, censorship offices, festivals), and the publication of the most important theoretical essays, cinema magazines and artistic manifestos. The fourth section, titled "Film Awards", reports for each year the winners of various important awards, divided by categories, at national and international festivals and events in the different continents to offer a more articulated point of view on the seventh art across the world. Among the awards and festivals here considered are: Golden Globe, Academy Awards, Venice Film Festival, Cannes Festival, BAFTA, Berlin Film Festival, Moscow Film Festival, Ouagadougou International Film Festival, Tokyo International Film Festival and the Mar de la Plata Festival.

The present volume deals with popular culture from an interdisciplinary perspective. Popular culture, as an important part of the public sphere, has attracted the interest of social scientists for many decades; however, most studies tend to rely on the anthropological perspective or, less commonly, on the sociological perspective. This edited volume breaks down disciplinary barriers to bring together a plethora of methodological and theoretical approaches to the study of popular culture. Moreover, the volume will foster dialogue between international scholars conducting research on the topic.

«Fare una descrizione precisa di ciò che non ha mai avuto luogo è il compito dello storico». La sentenza di Oscar Wilde guida questa ricostruzione del rimosso del cinema del Novecento, la storia dei grandi film non fatti, dal Don Chisciotte di Welles al Viaggio di G. Mastorna di Fellini, dal Cristo di Dreyer al Napoleone di Kubrick, dal Que viva Mexico! e Il prato di Bežin di Ejzenštejn al The Day the Clown Cried di Lewis. E ancora, Godard, Pasolini, Munk, Vertov, Lanzmann: la storia di grandi progetti incompiuti, di riprese che si sono protratte per decenni e poi sono state dimenticate in qualche magazzino, immagini rimaste sulla carta oppure riutilizzate, ma al di fuori della loro destinazione originaria. Attraverso questo racconto, emerge il profilo di quello che il Novecento non ha saputo vedere e raccontare, il retro della Storia, nonché il profilo di una storia delle immagini del cinema che disloca la centralità della sala cinematografica per far emergere i meccanismi di negoziazione e i doveri d'autore che preludono alla visibilità o alla scomparsa di tali immagini perdute.

representation in the arts and in culture, notably in literature, film, theatre and music. More specifically, it will be of the greatest interest to undergraduates, postgraduates, researchers and academics in a wide range of disciplines, including literary studies, film and drama studies, music, and history. The Introduction, by Jay Winter, sets the context, particularly with reference to the First World War, while the Conclusion summarises the significance of the research undertaken and its value for future research. This book will also have an impact on writers, publishers and organizers of exhibitions, museums, memorial sites and monuments whose influence in the field of war and memory has been increasing steadily in recent years. The imminent celebrations and commemorations pertaining to the Great War, beginning in 2014, together with the imminence of the seventieth anniversary of the end of the Second World War in 2015, will provide additional stimuli to public attention in this area over the next few years.
