Tinnitus is not a disease, but an aural condition characterised by noises in your head that can be heard in the absence of ambient sounds. The noises seem to occur in one or both ears and can sound like ringing, buzzing, whistling, hissing and often seem louder when the environmental noise is low, typically heard at night or when in very quiet places.

Now, most of you will have heard of the nursery rhyme “ London Bridge is Falling Down ” but did you know its origins? In 1269 Henry III diverted funds from bridge tolls to his wife, Eleanor, who some believe is the “ My Fair Lady ” in the now famous nursey rhyme. Just over a decade later, their son, Edward I, awarded the Bridge House ...
