Hedda Gabler, season 13-14. After a decade of praise for creating a modern style of drama, Ibsen found himself in a situation that would ultimately lead to the creation of arguably his greatest work, Hedda Gabler. Ibsen had become, at 61 years old, the source of infatuation for an assortment of young girls. The success was undoubtedly going to the playwright's head, and the previously inhibited (and married) man confidently pursued the relationships much further than he would have before ...
