Here's some shocking news; I'm Muslim. Most people do not expect to hear that I associate with the religion of Islam because what they see is a tall, white girl with red hair and green eyes who would walk outside in a sports bra and shorts. Contrary to what my image may suggest, I do pray ...

Bismillah I am a Muslim lyrics YouTube

Before departing this world on March 4, 2016, my father wrote the piece "I Am Muslim.". It is essentially a mission statement for Muslims around the world — a message to uphold the true, untainted values of Islam. He dreamt of a peaceful world where people lived together as one, undivided by the vile forces of conflict, greed, hate, bigotry, ignorance and selfishness.

Let me be clear, I am Muslim not because I think Islam is "truer" than other religions (it isn't), but because Islam provides me with the "language" I feel most comfortable with in expressing my faith. It provides me with certain symbols and metaphors for thinking about God that I find useful in making sense of the universe and my place in it.
