The TOK essay is about knowledge (how we come to know things). It helps to think of the essay as though you're showing the most interesting bits of a conversation between two smart people, about how we know things. Or you could think about it like presenting two sides of an argument, in front of a judge. Each side needs to present evidence.

What makes TOK lessons different from other IB DP lessons, is that you will think about knowledge and what it means to know rather than learn new knowledge as such. To do so, you will come across a range of fairly abstract concepts. Thinking about these concepts can be a little different from what you are used to.
