Tenor saxophonist Jimmy Greene was born in Bloomfield, Connecticut, in 1975. His father, James Greene, Sr., who was an amateur saxophonist and songwriter, got his son making music at an early age, buying him his first alto saxophone at age six. Two years later he began taking lessons, and by junior high the younger Greene had become obsessed with jazz music. When he was 15, his teacher brought ...

Jimmy Greene While Looking Up. On While Looking Up, Jimmy Greene finds solace, support and inspiration from multiple directions, but in particular from casting his gaze heavenward. Looking inward, he's comforted by his faith and by the gift for moving, expressive composition that has marked his work for the last two decades. Looking outward, he has his family and his brilliant collaborators ...
