"The Closest Thing to Crazy" is the debut single of Georgia-born singer Katie Melua. It is featured on her hugely successful album, Call Off the Search. The song was written as part of the musical Men Who March Away, and appeared first in 1995 on Mike Batt's album Arabesque. The single was originally due out in January 2004, but was released a month early in an attempt by Terry Wogan to make it that year's Christmas number one in the United Kingdom, but it stalled at number 10 on the UK ...

Katie's instincts proved right when 'The Closest Thing To Crazy' almost accidentally launched her career. With no record companies willing to release the completed album – those that were interested insisted the sound be made more modern – Mike remortgaged his house to put it out on his own indie label, Dramatico.

Biography - Katie Melua

Wogan played "The Closest Thing to Crazy" frequently in the summer of 2003. Wogan's support raised Melua's profile and when Call Off the Search was released in November 2003 supported by a TV campaign financed by Batt, it entered the top 40 UK albums chart.
