I finally have everything I ever wanted. A home with floor-to-ceiling windows, a devoted husband who dazzles everyone he meets, and two angelic children I adore. But as I watch my husband chatting with the girl next door, I wonder if anyone can see the sadness in my pretty pink smile, or hear the scream behind my straight white teeth? I know I'm crazy to think there's a hint of desire in his eyes. I know it's madness to see a flicker of fear in hers. I know all this, because I've been wrong before. And if I'm wrong again, he'll try to take my children away. The party is my last chance to prove to my husband that I'm on the mend, that I can handle something as simple as a drinks reception without snapping under the pressure.
