Making connections is linking what the students read, to what they already know. This strategy helps students comprehend text, by activating their prior knowledge and making meaning of what they read. Debby Draper (2012) suggests questions that students may ask themselves as they read to help them make connections with the text.

When children make connections between a book and their own lives, they feel empathy for the characters and become invested in the story. They have an easier time remembering the story when they feel a personal connection. Later, kids begin to make connections between books they ' ve read. Eventually they ' ll be making connections to the world.
