The ideal roadmap for defense lawyers and prosecutors, John M. Castellano has built on the fine works of the original authors of this book, James A. Adams and Daniel D. Blinka who appreciate the succinct analysis necessary to canvass the often tangled landscape of Fourth Amendment law. Their pragmatic approach has created a balanced, sound and comprehensive one-volume survey of arrest, search and seizure issues. The Third edition now features all decisions by the Supreme Court Fourth Amendment cases through June 2015 as well as significant and helpful circuit court decisions on a variety of topics. It includes a number of other new, expanded, or refined sections as well which include application for orders to intercept; bodily intrusions, emergency searches, and workplace searches. The eBook versions of this title feature links to Lexis Advance for further legal research options.

William Burgwinkle surveys poetry and letters, histories and literary fiction - including Grail romances - to offer a historical survey of attitudes towards same-sex love during the centuries that gave us the Plantagenet court of Henry II and Eleanor of Aquitaine, courtly love, and Arthurian lore. Burgwinkle illustrates how 'sodomy' becomes a problematic feature of narratives of romance and knighthood. Most texts of the period denounce sodomy and use accusations of sodomitical practice as a way of maintaining a sacrificial climate in which masculine identity is set in opposition to the stigmatised other, for example the foreign, the feminine, and the heretical. What emerges from these readings, however, is that even the most homophobic, masculinist and normative texts of the period demonstrate an inability or unwillingness to separate the sodomitical from the orthodox. These blurred boundaries allow readers to glimpse alternative, even homoerotic, readings.
