Chapter 1 Summary: "Doing the Right Thing". Sandel opens with stories of price gouging in the wake of a 2004 hurricane. Florida residents were outraged that anyone would "try to capitalize on other people's hardship and misery," but economists pointed out that prices are determined by supply and demand in a market society (2-3). Higher prices "simply reflect the value that buyers and sellers choose to place on the things they exchange," according to free-market economists like ...
