Notes
The book examines women's language
as an ideological
construct
historically created by discourse. The aim is to demonstrate, by

delineating a
genealogy of Japanese women's language, that, to
deconstruct and
denaturalize the
relationships
between gender
and any language,
and to account for
why and how they are related as they are, we must
consider history,

developments and
describing each
historical period in
a manner easily accessible for those readers not familiar with Japanese history.
This is the first
book that describes a comprehensive development of
