Modern art is that which was created sometime between the 1860s (some say the 1880s) and the late 1960s (some say only through the 1950s). Art made thereafter (e.g., conceptual, minimalist, postmodern, feminist) is considered contemporary. Beyond the time frames, there are conceptual and aesthetic differences between the two phases.

What's the Difference Between Modern and Contemporary Art ...

Modern art is based on the creative ability of the artist. Hence, during the modernist era, art was considered as unique creations of the artist. It is believed that the works of modern art had deep meaning. This is due to the fact that the artist gave more importance to purpose during the times of modern art.
