The true story of La Cosa Nostra's most ruthless hit squad. When the 'big four' of crime - Charles Lucky Luciano, Meyer Lansky, Benjamin Bugsy Siegel, and Frank Costello - reshaped the structure of the New York underworld in 1931, an arm of the mob was created to carry out its own very special brand of justice. Culled from the Jewish and Italian sections of Brooklyn, these specialists within the underworld came to be known as the boys from Murder Incorporated.

Revenge killings, gangland shootouts, brutal executions and drownings - there was no escape from the Mob's hitmen. Featuring historical photographs, Mafia Murders details the bloody ends of these infamous gangsters. Since the late 19th
