1. Journal writing is a brief but regular writing time — Initially, preschoolers may write for just ten minutes. Over time they will write longer. However long the writing period is, the important thing is that children write often. Aim for at least three times a week if you want your children to grow as writers. 2. Journal writing is open-ended. "My favorite food is..." or "I like to..." are writing prompts.

From the illustrator of the #1 smash The Day the Crayons Quit comes another bestseller--a giggle-inducing tale of everything tossed, thrown, and hurled in order to free a kite! When Floyd's kite gets stuck in a tree, he's determined to get it out. But how? Well, by knocking it down with his shoe, of course. But strangely enough, it too gets stuck. And the only logical course of action . . . is to throw his other shoe. Only now it's stuck! Surely there must be something he can use to get his kite unstuck. An orangutan? A boat? His front door? Yes, yes, and yes. And that's
