Sports Journalism Sports Journalism is a sub-division of journalism that covers sports events, figures and related issues. Its importance steadily grew in the 20th and 21st centuries, partly due to the commercialization of sports and the accessibility to sports television channels, Internet websites, and newspaper and magazine online editions.

Journalism started in the early 1800s when it was targeted to the social elite and has transitioned into an integral part of the news business with newspapers having dedicated sports sections. The increased popularity of sports amongst the middle and lower class led to the more coverage of sports content in publications. The appetite for sports resulted in sports only publication
