Still Waters (Sandhamn Murders Book 1) by Viveca Sten is a new series for me. The novel is mostly set on the small island of Sandham in the Swedish archipelago and conveys a vivid sense of the island community. Police detective Thomas Andreasson is sent to Sandhamn when a body is discovered tangled in a fishing net.

Our author accomplished that goal with Still Waters, the first book in the Sandhamn Murders series. The book has a strong sense of place with a few locations in modern day Sweden. The reader gets a feel for a Swedish summer with the population shift to the coastline and offshore islands. Sandhamn is an island reachable by ferry with a significant summer population and typical tensions between wealthy owners of second homes and fulltime residents.
