United States, the district court refused to enforce plaintiff ' s Rule 45 subpoena that sought documents from defendant ' s expert witness. Although acknowledging that the language of Rule 45 was unclear, the Alper court insisted that since a party proffers an expert witness, that witness should be considered under the party ' s control. Because the expert witness was " within defendant ' s control, " the court noted that Rule 34 rather than Rule 45 governed the requested discovery.
