America

Four explorers from different backgrounds are marooned in space—and must unite to escape their floating prison—in this novel by a Nebula Award winner. In the twenty-third century, when venturing too close to the target

proves disastrous
when the black
sun's magnetic
field permanently
obliterates their
only means of
returning home.
Suddenly, four strangers, two

returned to Earth,
only to discover
the planet is dead,
a blackened shell
devoid of life. It is clear that one of a trio of alien species engineered the holocaust, but which? When the captain of the Franklin falters, engineer Carl Donnan is forced to take command of the ship. The future of what remains of the human race is in his hands.

Donnan's first priority is to escape with his crewmates; the second is to find out if there are other human survivors somewhere among the stars—unknownst to Donnan and the three hundred men now under his charge, the female crew of the Europa also survived the genocide—and the third is to seek vengeance, for the alien annihilators will not rest until their task is completed. If the last men and women in the galaxy do not identify and
