The School of Essential Ingredients is the best-selling 2009 debut novel from Erica Bauermeister. The story centers around eight students who attend a weekly cooking class at a restaurant. Along the way, their unconventional instructor finds the "essential ingredients" that awaken and transform the students' lives.

The School of Essential Ingredients Summary | SuperSummary

The Ingredients of Us by Jennifer Gold is an impressive offering from a debut author. Ms Gold has taken a well-trodden scenario, infidelity in a marriage, and given it a fresh and compelling spin. Although this was a relatively quick and straightforward read, it was in no way lacking in emotional depth.
