Michael Lewis believes that ELT textbooks are teaching English verb tenses all wrong. ELT textbooks typically present lists of rules and exceptions for when to use verb tenses. (e.g. --you teach the students that the present perfect is used in certain situation, is not used in other situations, and then have the students memorize all the exceptions to the rules).

The English Verb by Michael Lewis--Revisited

Basically, Michael Lewis says that we English teachers have been teaching the verb tenses all wrong. For one thing, we teach each tense as if it were a series of uses, each unconnected to each other, and then a series of exceptions to each of these uses. This has the effect of just confusing and discouraging our students.
