Parents need to know that The Perilous Sea is the sequel to The Burning Sky and contains mild violence that exists in a fantasy realm. Elemental mages have the ability to manipulate natural elements and use their powers against one another during battles. Lightning bolts and hurricane storms are called upon to attack opposing kingdoms.

The Perilous Sea (The Elemental Trilogy #2) (11) The offer stoked his suspicions anew. Was the elemental mage a bounty hunter of some sort, concerned that a cash prize might be spoiled by Atlantis's arrival on scene? "Why do you insist on clinging to me?". "What?". "You always pushing your company on me."

The Immortal Heights is the final book in Sherry Thomas YA fantasy Elemental Trilogy, and brings to a very satisfying conclusion the story of Prince Titus of the House of Elberon and Iolanthe Seabourne begun in The Burning Sky and continued in The Perilous Sea. I dont normally read Young Adult fiction, but Im a huge fan of the authors, so her name on the cover was enough to get me reading.
