The Question of Bruno is a novella and stories that are linked by characters, by locations, by interwoven substories, and by a literary voice so strong and sensitive that no matter how many guises it adopts, the stories cannot help but gather momentum and join together as a powerfully inventive whole. Set in Chicago and Sarajevo, it is a book about the trauma of war, about how an exile makes a new life in a new land.

~~The Question of Bruno by Aleksandar Hemon:
9780375727009 ...~~

Aleksandar Hemon has produced a masterpiece. Reading "The question of Bruno" is the literary equivalent of watching the bright colours and shifting shapes of a kaleidoscope turn endlessly in confusing, but compelling patterns. It is a collection of short stories each of which contains a kernel in it somewhere that reflects a new dimension of Bosnian reality before it too spins away to be replaced by another account, different in time, space and meaning, but again contributing to the emerging ...

Undaunted, Hemon, a half-Serbian, half-Ukrainian writer, remained in Chicago, where he worked at a number of menial jobs and began learning English. He published his first story in English in 1995 and, five years later, the collection of seven stories and a novella that form "The Question of Bruno."

In 2000 Hemon published his first book, The Question of Bruno, which included short stories and a novella. His second book, Nowhere Man, followed in 2002. Variously referred to as a novel and as a collection of linked stories, Nowhere Man concerns Jozef Pronek, a character who earlier appeared in one of the stories in The Question of Bruno. It was a finalist for the 2002 National Book Critics Circle Award.
