Latin America: The Resurgence of the Left. The Left in Latin America is staging a major comeback. While most publicists, journalists, academics, government and World Bank officials either celebrate or bemoan the triumph of ' neoliberalism ' , opposition is growing which in time could challenge the dominance of the whole free-market power structure. As yet only loosely associated—in forums, seminars, and international gatherings—this new oppositional force has solid roots in a number of ...
