Now, let's focus on the other main character, Maha, the girl who gave the proposal to go to Chlifa as well as taking care of a baby along their journey. In my eyes, she is an impossibly brave and sensitive girl with a fragile heart. She always pretends to be strong but in fact she has been hurt by Karim again and again.

Essay about The Road to Chlifa - 656 Words

Violence shapes the lives of all of the characters in this novel. Karim and Maha are born into a city that has been at war for their whole lives, and both children view bombs as commonplace, even mundane. When her home is bombed and her family is killed, Maha is incredibly calm, collected, and focused on her next step.
