Jesus is the Word (John 1:1-3) and he has the words of life (John 6:68). The word of God is what he speaks to us. But for us today, the Bible, energized by the Holy Spirit, is our sword. Apart from the Holy Spirit it is nothing more than words on a page.

Psalm 149:6 describes the praise of God as a double-edged sword. In addition to symbolizing God's Word, the sword appears to represent punishment from God. God will sometimes lift his sword against...

The Sword of the Spirit: Armor of God Explained

The sword of the Spirit, the word of God, is drawn from Isaiah 49:2. There the promised servant of the Lord says, “[The Lord] made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand he hid me; he made me a polished arrow; in his quiver he hid me away.”

The Sword of God. A man called Milton walks into town.... On the run from his own demons, John Milton treks through the Michigan wilderness into the town of Truth. He's not looking for trouble, but trouble's looking for him. He finds himself up against a small-town cop who has no idea with whom he is dealing, and no idea how dangerous he is.

The Sword of God - Mark Dawson

The weapon of the word of God serves the wielding power of prayer by giving words to prayer. And now you can see, as we draw things to a close, that the power that wields the sword of the Spirit is not really our power. Prayer, when it is full of power is full of the word of God. The sword of the Spirit is wielded by the power of the Spirit.

The Sword of God by Mark Dawson (John Milton #5)

Devotional by John Piper. “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.”. (Matthew 5:8) When Paul says to put to death the deeds of the body “by the Spirit” (Romans 8:13), I take him to mean that we should use the one weapon in the Spirit’s armor that is used to kill; namely, the sword, “which is the word of God” (Ephesians 6:17). So, when the body is about to be led into a sinful action by some fear or craving, we are to take the sword of the Spirit and kill ...

Series Peter cut off Malchus's ear was that he missed (John 18:10). But Herod didn't miss: "He killed James the brother of John with the sword" (Acts 12:2). Many saints have felt the full force of the sword: "They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were killed with the sword" (Hebrews 11:37). So it was and will be: "If anyone is to be slain with the sword, with the sword must he be slain" (Revelation 13:10).

Swords Are for Killing | Desiring God
I broke into Dawson's John Milton series at book #5, The Sword of God and enjoyed it very much. While at times I felt a lack of backstory (for obvious reasons!), the book stands alone just fine. It was fun to see how Dawson's story grows out of the seed story he mentions, especially David Morrell's Rambo character in his novel, First Blood.
