The Town of Turtle book. When a solitary turtle decides to make some renovations to his shell, he doesn’t have a blueprint, only a dream for a better life. He starts by building a deck—though he figures the deck could use a fireplace. And a fireplace needs wood, so naturally, he plants a garden. But it isn’t really a garden without a pond . . .

The book was strange at best. My 3 year old grabbed this book today from the library and I read it to both her and my 8 year old tonight before bed. The book talks about turtles only friend being his shadow, then the story goes on to say how turtle is painting his walls. Are these the walls inside of his shell or outside.

The Frank Slide was a massive rockslide that buried part of the mining town of Frank, North-West Territories, Canada, at 4:10 a.m. on April 29, 1903. Around 110 million tonnes of limestone rock slid down Turtle Mountain. Witnesses reported that within 100 seconds the rock reached up the opposing hills, obliterating the eastern edge of Frank, the Canadian Pacific Railway line and the coal mine. It was one of the largest landslides in Canadian history and remains the deadliest, as between 70 and 9
