analyse and interpret the information. A theoretical perspective allows the nurse to plan and implement care purposefully and proactively.

Theory-based nursing practice

Theory-guided nursing practice will make nursing a unique profession with its own practice. In terms of traditional science, a theory can be described as a set of established state- ments or rules that are able to be tested (Hardy 1978).

Historically, nursing theory has been based around and developed alongside medical knowledge and theory.

Theory of Reflective Practice in Nursing

In 1991 education theorists Lave and Wegner developed situated learning theory (SLT). The theory argues that knowledge should be learned in the Practice as it is used.

For learners, this means:

We should learn like apprentices from a “community of practice”.
