Trial By Fire was a wonderful blend of fantasy with the element of atmospheric interdimensional travel, driven by an intense romance and the plight of one girl to save a world that is not her own. Lily was a sickly child, often hospitalised with severe allergies and a constant fever in which she was ostracised by her peers.

TRIAL BY FIRE is a riveting, action-packed first book in a series that looks to be every bit as amazing. Set in an alternate world to our own, one with only a few similarities, a world of magic, where witches are in control, and where life outside the Thirteen Cities is extremely dangerous, this story will captivate from the moment Lily Proctor arrives in this Salem of covens, Outlanders, shamans and the Woven.
