Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends.

What Does the Bible Say About Marriage?

What Does the Bible say about Needing Others? After God created Adam and placed him in a beautiful garden, He watched him and said that it is not good for man to be alone. He created Eve for him. Sure, this is a verse usually used for marriage, but I think it applies to all relationships. Family and friends are important relationships.

The Bible Claims to Be God's Word . The very first thing we need to understand about the Bible is that it definitively claims to have its source in God. Meaning, the Bible proclaims itself to be divinely inspired by God.

What Does the Bible Say About Itself? - Learn Religions

The Bible has dozens and dozens of scriptures referencing the value of life. This is what the LORD says – your Redeemer, who formed you in the womb: I am the LORD, the Maker of all things, who stretches out the heavens, who spreads out the earth by myself, (Isaiah 44:24). Know that the Lord is God.

What Does the Bible Say about Abortion? - Christianity

First, John Fugelsang is just mistaken about what the Bible says. It does not say that all life begins at first breath. It says that God breathed into Adam after forming him from the dust, and he came to life. Genesis 2 is describing a special act involving a special couple. Second, the Bible clearly recognizes human life before first breath.

Talking to the Dead in the Bible The Old Testament teaches that believers are defiled by their attempts at communicating with the dead, a practice that is detestable to God. The New Testament instructs believers to seek guidance from God and his Spirit only.

Talking to the Dead: What Does the Bible Say?

Repentance in the Bible involves a complete and irreversible change of mind, heart, and actions. Repentance recognizes that our sin is offensive to God. To repent means to make an about-face, heart-directed turn away from self to God, from the past to a future ruled by God's commands, acknowledging that the Lord reigns supreme over one's existence.

What does the Bible say about love? Loving first "In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son." 1 John 4:10. It's great if someone loves me, and I love them in return. That's easy. But that is not proof of love. God loved us before we loved Him, and we certainly did nothing to deserve that love. What if someone has treated me badly?
